As Americans, we agree on a lot more than you might think, from the economy and big $$ in politics to immigration and healthcare.

84% of Americans agree that politicians have too much economic power, and 82% agree that the rich and big corporations have too much power. 1

84% of Americans agree that “money has too much influence” in our democracy. 2

78% of Americans, including 80% of Republicans, oppose the Supreme Court’s Citizens United ruling that corporations should be counted as people. 3

Nearly 80% favor limits on both raising and spending money in Congressional campaigns. 4

2019 and 2020 polls show that 70% of American adults agree that our economic system unfairly favors powerful interests. 5

75% of Americans favor adopting a 4% surtax on individual income above $5 million. 6

84% of Americans favor paid family leave. 7

Two-thirds support a $15 federal minimum wage. 8

64% of Americans say they are greatly bothered by the feeling that some corporations do not pay their fair share of taxes. 9

As of 2019, a majority of Americans— including 82% of Republicans and 93% of Democrats—favor closing gun-sale loopholes by enforcing background checks for private gun sales and at gun shows. 10

77% of Americans now believe the US should prioritize the development of renewable energy over expanding fossil fuel production. 11

71% favor changing the healthcare system so that any American can buy into a government-run health care plan if they prefer. 12

71% think that most immigrants living in the US illegally should be offered a chance to apply for legal status. 13

68% favor increased federal spending on green and renewable energy. 14

71% are against overturning Roe v Wade. 15

77% agree that racism is a serious problem in the US and 72% say racism is a serious problem in policing. 16

www.SmallPlanet.org

